O Allah, teach us the Quran.

— ONLINE QURAN CLASSES —

WHAT IS A PRONOUN?

A pronoun is a word that takes the place of a noun.

Instead of repeating the name of a person or thing, the Quran often uses pronouns such as he, they, we, you, and I.

Understanding Quranic pronouns helps you follow the meaning of verses more easily and improves your comprehension of the Quran without relying on translation for every word.

Many Quranic verses become much clearer once you recognize who each pronoun refers to.

WHY LEARN QURANIC PRONOUNS?

Understand Quranic verses more easily.

Build a strong foundation in Quranic Arabic.

Improve your vocabulary naturally.

Read with greater confidence.

Prepare for learning Quranic grammar (Nahw).

LEARNING TIP

Read each pronoun aloud several times.

Repeat the Roman pronunciation.

Memorize the English and Urdu meanings.

Then try to recognize the same pronouns while reading the Quran.

IN THIS BOOK YOU WILL LEARN

Personal Pronouns

Demonstrative Pronouns

Interrogative Pronouns

Their English meanings

Their Urdu meanings

2

نَحْنُ

Nahnu

📖 Roman	Nahnu
🗣️ English	We
👤 Urdu	ہم

Example from the Quran

إِنَّا نَحْنُ نَزَّلْنَا الذِّكْرَ

Inna Nahnu Nazzalna adh-Dhikr

Indeed, We have sent down the Reminder.

بے شک ہم نے یہ ذکر نازل کیا ہے۔

Learning Point

When Allah uses نَحْنُ (We) in the Quran, it is the royal plural, expressing majesty and greatness. It does not mean more than one god.

3

أَنْتَ

Anta

📖 Roman	Anta
🗣️ English	You (Masculine Singular)
👤 Urdu	تم

Example from the Quran

أَنْتَ مَوْلَانَا
